For sale cheap—the Bayard boom.

NORBY little Acklen rises to explain.

TILDEN will have a solid delegation from Ohio.

SIXTEEN counties in Pennsylvania have instructed for Blaine.

THE chief end of the Cincinnati newspapers now, is to write John Sherman up for the Presidency.

SHOULD Grant not be a candidate, the delegates from New York to the Chicago Convention are to be instructed for Conkling.

THE news copied from the Atlanta Constitution relative to the Georgia Central road is as clear as mud. What at first appears as a serious fact turns out to be the merest rumor.

If Gary and Haskell, the red-hot fire-eaters of South Carolina, should shoot each other, the country would sustain the loss with a great deal of equanimity.

CONGRESS has been petitioned to get up an international sheep show. We were under the impression that Congress has been giving one free of all charge for the last month or so. Is it possible another one is wanted?

It is said that there is a larger fleet in the New York harbor now than has ever been known before. It comprises 58 steamers, 80 ships, 454 barks, and 96 brigs, with a carrying capacity, excluding the steamers, of 370,000 tons.

THE Richmond Whig says that Mahone has not turned Republican. In the name of Tennessee Republicans, we thank the Whig for this assurance. It is as grateful as a stream of water is to a man perishing from thirst.

A BILL has been introduced in the Ohio Legislature, giving women the privilege of voting in all school elections. This is a good bill and worthy of being copied in all the States. Thus far woman suffrage is a good thing.

If the suit against Louisiana, in which New Hampshire is the complainant, stands, suits will immediately be brought against Tennessee and Virginia. In such circumstances the present political status in those States will be quickly swept away, as they will have to pay their debts whether they want to or not.

THE Courier-Journal has arrived at the conclusion that Garcelon is an old humbug and that his followers are fools and knaves. Just what we said four weeks ago, and for saying it we sustained a fierce attack from our amiable neighbors of the Tribune. Now let them pitch into the Courier-Journal, or acknowledge that we were right all the time.

MEMPHIS has a civil right case in the United States Court. The wife of a rich colored planter of Mississippi has brought suit for damages against the Memphis and Charleston road because a conductor refused her admittance to the ladies' car. The conductor claims that he thought her companion was a white man and that they were improper persons, and this and not her color was the cause of his action.

THIS is the way the Maine Greenback organ talks about it: "The State House must be taken out of the hands of the mob if it costs a thousand lives. If Joseph L. Smith, Governor, let him show it. If not, he had better resign in favor of some one else. Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, took one State House away from the Republicans. We say, take this or better it down. Where are the men who voted against the Republican? Are they willing to be thus cowed and kicked about by bond-bought bank brokers? Had the red coats done in 1776 what was done last week at Augusta, we should have had a Lexington and a Bunker Hill years before. If we don't capture the Capitol we are forever disgraced. Garcelon would have captured it before this."

The Garner Case at Maryville.

From parties who came from Maryville yesterday morning, we learn that Allen Garner, a former colored Justice of the Peace of Blount county, was sentenced, Thursday, to the penitentiary for four years and six months, on a charge of raising or forging county warrants, or something of the kind. This was the case in which Eagleton was prosecutor.

He was also being tried on another and similar case, in which Duncan is prosecutor. The evidence was in, but the case had not been argued at the adjournment of Court Thursday night. The case against him was not for the burning of the Court House, as was stated by us yesterday.

XLVI. CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.

Mr. Acklen (La.) made a personal explanation relative to the charges made in recent numbers of the New York Herald and Detroit Post, to the effect that he had during the absence from the House of members of the Committee on Foreign Affairs (of which Committee he was not a member), made a report purporting to be the report of that Committee on the "Nicaraguan Claims" bill. He referred to these charges as the most malicious and willful pervasions of the truth on record, and offered a resolution, which was adopted, directing the Committee on Foreign Affairs to examine into the truth or falsity of them.

Mr. Harris (Mass.), from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported a bill, which was referred to the Committee of the Whole, providing for permanent construction funds for the Navy.

Mr. Valentine (Neb.) asked leave to offer a resolution instructing the Appropriation Committee to report the Post Office Appropriation bill, with the exception of the items of appropriation relative to the star service, by the 5th of February.

Mr. Blackburn (Ky.), Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary, reported a bill removing the political disabilities of Wm. B. Talliaferro, of Virginia.

Mr. Conger (Mich.) opposed the bill on the ground that in his petition the petitioner referred to the late war as a war between the Southern States and the United States, instead of a war of rebellion.

The Speaker thought that the tone of the petition did not exhibit any disposition, on the part of the petitioner, to be hypercritical; it was in the usual form. The Chair was always on the side of pensioners and relieving disabilities.

Mr. Conger (Michigan)—I do not rank pensioners and those who ask amnesty in the same class.

Mr. Speaker—The Chair would elect them all to full citizenship, and those who have suffered he would have pensioned.

The bill was finally passed; yeas, 172; nays, 53. A number of the Republicans voting with the Democrats in the affirmative.

Bills were then passed removing the political disabilities of J. S. Mauney, J. Wilkinson and C. C. Simms, of Virginia.

Mr. Conger (Mich.) objected to the passage of a bill removing the political disabilities of Jno. Owens, of Virginia, and demanded the yeas and nays, pending which the morning hour expired. The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the private calendar. The bill for the relief of certain citizens of Lynchburg, Virginia, refunding to them taxes improperly collected from them on manufactured tobacco, amounting to $26,000, was debated and laid aside, to be favorably reported. After some further business of little public interest, the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Gov. Pitkin, of Colorado, resumed his testimony before the House Committee on Indian Affairs this morning. He related the incidents of his interviews with Jack and other Indians, going to show that Ouray had gradually lost his influence over the younger Utes, and a feeling of dissatisfaction and a war spirit had, for some time past, been gaining the ascendancy with them. He said that some of the scouts had, previous to Col. Thornburgh's fight, been warned that the Indians would attack the troops at or near Bear River, and that it was the general opinion among the people of Colorado that an outbreak was precipitated by a part of the Utes.

The House Committee on Commerce considered Mr. Reagan's (Tex.) inter-State Commerce bill to-day, but without taking final action thereon.

Before the Exodus Commission to-day Senators Windom and Blair closely cross-examined Charles H. Otay, who testified last Monday. He admitted to-day that he knew of no member of the Emigrant Aid Society, except Mendenhall nor any outside Republican advising a diversion of the negroes from Kansas to Indiana for political purposes. He believed the three men engaged in inciting the emigration were in the pay of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company. The other testimony was unimportant. The committee adjourned till to-morrow.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Jan. 30.—The Whig, Gen. Mahone's organ, publishes the following: "The Manchester Courier, of yesterday, under an immense display of headlines, perpetrates a stupendous joke upon the Readjusters, the sum and substance of which is that Gen. Mahone has gone over to the Republicans. We are not sure that it needs contradiction. Certainly nobody who knows Mahone believes it, and the developments that are rapidly to come will give the hoax the quietus. The Courier might as well say that Mahone has gone over to the Bourbon Funders."

MAINE.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 30.—Several additional Fusionists took seats in the House, and there are but four empty chairs at the Senatorial Board. The Auburn Light Infantry reported this morning. No military or extraordinary police force are at the State House now.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

ATLANTA, Jan. 30.—Rev. T. J. Simmon, whose name is before the Senate, has withdrawn his application for the appointment for the position as Supervisor of Census for the purpose of relieving his friend Hon. W. H. Felton.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 30.—Congratulatory dispatches were exchanged to-day between the mayors of Chattanooga and Cincinnati on the occasion of the opening of telegraphic communication over the Cincinnati Southern Railroad.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 30.—At a meeting of the Western Union Association here to-day the price of iron was advanced 4 cents.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—A dispatch from Rome to the Pall Mall Gazette says: "The condition of the Pope's health is causing anxiety. He suffers from fits of shivering and great prostration, but persists in his usual occupation."

The Very Rev. Frederick Oakley, a Roman Catholic divine and writer on religious subjects, is dead, aged 78.

Lord Beaconsfield is suffering from an attack of gout.

Three deaths from starvation have occurred this week in the neighborhood of Pansontown, county of Louth, Ireland.

RAILROAD NEWS.

The Georgia Central Lease Declared Off.

[Special dispatch to the Constitution.] SAVANNAH, Jan. 29.—Yesterday a called meeting of the directors of the Georgia Central met here, and passed a resolution rescinding the pending proposition to lease the road. This action was taken on information received from Atlanta, a quorum of the board being here, formal action was taken, and now there is no pending lease of the Georgia Central.

A careful investigation of this rumor in the city developed but little—but the Constitution picked late last night on a piece of information that absolutely confirmed the rumor from Savannah.

When questioned directly as to the truth or falsity of the report, Mr. Wadley said: "Where did you hear that?"

When told that it had come from Savannah by wire, he said, as near as we can express it: "Ph-w-o-n-g-h-h!"

Whether this was meant as an exclamation confirmatory, indignant, or disjunctive, we can not precisely say. One or two directors of the Central, when approached on the subject, were quite as non-committal as Mr. Wadley, but we discovered a piece of testimony at last that justifies us in giving our full and perfect credence to the report.

Thus, then, the situation is simplified by the elimination of one of the leading elements of the problem. The lease of the Central is no longer a question, because the Central has withdrawn its proposition, and there is nothing for the Louisville and Nashville to act on.

What will be the effect of this decisive action of the Central directors can not be immediately predicted. It would appear that it would lessen the chances of a combination of Colonel Cole with the Louisville and Nashville people, and would increase the chances of an alliance between him and Governor Brown and Mr. Wadley and the Cincinnati Southern. This, however, is the merest rumor, and nothing certain can be predicted.

COLE AND THE SOUTHERN.

[Cincinnati Times.] There is no foundation for the remarkable statement of the morning papers that Mr. Cole, the ex-king of the Nashville and Chattanooga railroad, was almost certain to be made President of the Cincinnati Railway Company. Or, if there is, the people of the aforesaid Company have been unable to dig low enough to find it. There is no likelihood of a new President for the short term of the present lease. Mr. Cole may be utilized by the Southern Railroad, but it is doubtful, to say the least, whether the Southern Railroad will be utilized by Mr. Cole.

GREENE COUNTY.

A Hunter Killed a Man Run Over by the Train—Deaths.

GREENEVILLE, Jan. 29, 1880. MR. EDITOR: Two rather serious accidents have recently occurred in and near town—one of them resulting fatally.

On the 19th inst., three Nimbros, Tom Evans, white, Gardner and another colored boy, started squirrel hunting, having but one gun between them. They were all intoxicated, and when the first squirrel was found, got into a controversy about who should have the first shot. All three caught hold of the gun, and in the scuffle the contents were discharged, the ball striking Evans in the abdomen, ranging downward, and he died from the effects. Gardner was arrested, tried before a Magistrate and bound over to court.

Last night at about 12 o'clock, Jordan Dickson, colored, having limbed rather freely, attempted to cross the railroad just ahead of the westward bound freight. The result was that he was knocked down, one leg remaining across the rail, and one pedal quickly amputated just above the ankle.

Quite a number of deaths have occurred during the past month; more than usual.
